One of my favourite scenes in Terminator 2 is where the T-1000 says some lines to Col. Charles Moore. I've read that the actor who played the Terminator in this scene, Robert Patrick, had an obsession with these lines. Robert Patrick was the same actor who played the Terminator in Terminator 2: Judgement Day (1990). What did this T-1000 say to Colonel Moore? A: The actor who played the Terminator in that scene, Robert Patrick, has described his scene in question here: Here in 1991, on the set of Terminator 2, the very last day of shooting, a guy named Scott begged me if I could say the line "I'm a machine". And I was like, "You are a machine!" and I came

Synthesis of 1-methyl-9-oxo-10-sulfonamidoacridine derivatives as tubulin assembly inhibitors. Based on the structure of combretastatin A-4, a series of 1-methyl-9-oxo-10-sulfonamidoacridine derivatives (2-10) have been designed and synthesized as tubulin assembly inhibitors. Among them, compounds 2-3 and 5-6 exhibited growth-inhibitory activity against KB cells (IC₅₀=0.14-0.15 microg/mL). The results show that compound 5 could inhibit the proliferation of KB cells with the inhibition rate of 46.6%. Q: How do I move a div to a different part of the page when hovering an image? I've seen a few examples, but none of them worked for me. I need to move an image when hovering over it, and then to move another div when hovering over it. This means that I have to reposition the div, which I did by setting position: relative. If I don't do this, the div is hidden behind the image. A: In your html, add a class for the div to be moved: And in css: #myDiv { position: relative; } #myDiv.moveMe { position: absolute; top: 0; left: 0; width: 100%; height: 100%; }
