Search Engine Marketing Search Engine Marketing Search Engine Marketing (SEM) is a type of Search Engine Optimization (SEO) that is a combination of strategic and creative marketing techniques that focus on driving high-quality, relevant traffic to your website. While SEO focuses on marketing to search engines like Google, Yahoo, and Bing and is typically done by a web developer, SEM focuses on making changes to your website that will allow it to rank higher on search engine results, and increase your return on investment (ROI). The goal of Search Engine Marketing is to make your web page as relevant and as targeted as possible for the particular keywords and phrases that are being searched for. At Byte Interactive, we have a range of Search Engine Marketing tools that you can use to get your site off the ground. Below are three of the best Search Engine Marketing tools that we use: What is it? It's a feature that adds a word or phrase within the selected text. For example, if you were writing a blog post, you could choose to leave the section in-between the two paragraphs, select that area and add: search engine optimization as an outbound link. By using this tool, you can tell your search engines that there is a link between the area of the text you just selected and the rest of your website. The search engines will crawl the entire web page looking for a connection between the two pieces of content and that's how they will rank the page in search results. This tool allows you to add: individual words or phrases that you wish to be added into the first paragraph, the second paragraph and the body of the text multiple words that you wish to be added into the first paragraph and the second paragraph, and multiple phrases that you wish to be added into the first paragraph, the second paragraph and the body of the text. It's your chance to get out ahead of your competitors and stop them from getting to the top spot when someone searches for your business online. That way, you can be the one who gets noticed and gets more search visitors. Results: Using this tool allows you to make the most of all your pages by increasing your website's overall ranking for all 6d1f23a050
